STATIONARY AND MORE:

Gift your children some attractive pens, notepads and pencils to encourage them to get a little creative while still giving them something they're going to get excited over and look forward to using.

Pick: Gifting ideas has a range of children's products that you can pick from at www.giftingideas.com

PIGGY BANKS: Inculcate the habit of saving in your child from an early age by gifting them a cute piggy bank. From piggy banks that look like motorcycles to traditional piggies in an array of colours, these make for the perfect gift.

Pick: @home has a range of motorcycle piggy banks and you can also pick up some great ones from www.giftingideas.com

KIDS SPEAK

9-year-old Danielle Coutinho excitedly says, "My school is taking us for a movie as well as a lunch on Children's Day. I haven't made any plans with my parents and sister but I know my parents will surprise us!" Her 6-year-old sister, Denise adds, "I don't have any plans for Children's Day but I really hope that my parents take my sister and me out for dinner and then to a play area like the one at Infiniti Mall in Malad."

ACTIVITIES & DEALS

MONGINIS: For children, there's nothing better than a sugar rush so it's no surprise that Monginis is offering a special range of treats for children this month. Also, on Children's Day, anyone buying a Monginis celebration cake can now enjoy lovely cakes and also get some great toys too. From Brownie Break (₹250) to a Tango Teen (₹500), you and your children can indulge in some sinful sweets this Children's Day.

KIDSCENTRAL: The perfect place to take your children this Children's Day is the KidsCentral Expo which is going to be full of exciting products and fun-filled activities for children as well as parents. Organisers Toral Shah Kabra and Hetal Vashi have sponsored children related charitable organisations such as Step Up, The Akanksha Foundation and Shania NC's I Love Mumbai. Activities at the exhibition include the Make 'n' Bake ceramic studio, Go Cheese to give your children cooking demonstrations, Banoo's Fit Kid Fun Factory, Soccer Schools of Excellence and Candy Cubes book readings. You'll also find personalised bath wear from VCubs, Jessika Choksi dresses, quirky toys from Forty Red Bangles, Snow Wonder with artificial snow and Image M with Disney jewellery.
