

>> EXHIBITION

Come November and it is time for all the children to have a blast! The World Trade Centre in Mumbai is all set to hold the KidsCentral 2011 Expo, India's only premier children's exhibition, to celebrate Children's Day. Scheduled with a horde of fun filled activities for children and parents alike, the exhibition will be the perfect venue for parents to see the range of exciting products available for their children. It will have stalls like the ever-popular Make N Bake ceramic studio, where kids can explore the art of pottery at the exhibition itself, Recipe Mobile, where kids can decorate and gobble cupcakes as they like, GO Cheese which will give kids a cooking demonstration, showing them how they can have fun with their food and many more.
